Dear Mr. Norris:

As you know it was my intention to come back over and spend some time with you before leaving your section. However, I found my school obligations more pressing at the end of the quarter than I had anticipated. Thus I had to leave New York without having the opportunity of spending more time with you.

By this time I suppose the matter of executive secretary for your branch has been settled and I hope wisely with you as executive secretary. I heard that DeMar from greater New York's office was scheduled for executive secretary in Newark and did not see how this could work, but since strange things do happen, I am afraid to predict. Let us know how things turned out or in the making for I am very much interested in your set-up.

Everything has been moving along smoothly with me since my return, so smoothly in fact that I am afraid it is "calm before the storm". Best wishes I am,

Very truly yours,

L. W. Armwood, Exec. Sec.
